In spite of Herr Bismarck, American "hogs." At 7 to 70 cents per pound they even may claim to be "some pumpkins."

The house did well in refusing to submit the calling of a new constitutional convention. There was no popular demand for it.

Russell Brown and Patrick McGlew have been sentenced to 10 years in the penitentiary for the murder of Mrs. Dorris, the grandmother of the former, in St. Louis.

Mr. Parrell, in an interview at Paris, gave his word of honor that three of ten men recently hanged in Ireland were innocent of the crimes for which they were executed.

A number of republican newspapers seem to be engaged in an acrobatic performance. They attempt to make high license appear hideous in Missouri, and also the right thing in Nebraska.

The old familiar advice, "Young man, go west," should now, it is thought, be applied exclusively to young women. There are at present in Nebraska, 7,000 more boys than girls.

It is estimated that the monthly receipts of eggs in New York are 60,000 barrels of seventy dozen each, which would make the annual egg trade of the national metropolis aggregate over 50,000,000 eggs.

The president has appointed A. W. Wyman, Assistant-Treasurer of the United States, to be Treasurer in the place of Mr. James Giffilan, whose resignation has been accepted, to take effect on the 1st of April.

We print the high license law on the outside, as there were errors in it as it was first given to the press. Gov. Crittenden signed it last Saturday, and it will go into effect 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

A meeting of Irish, Scotch, and English members of Parliament was held in London a few days ago, at which it was decided to form a political committee with a view to influencing public opinion in regard to Irish reforms. The committee is regarded as an impartial one. No personalities are connected with it.

A dispatch from Berlin says that Prince Bismarck has written to the Bundesrath recommending that, in order to prevent an erosion of the law, hog products be admitted into the country only on stated proof that they are not from America. A decree has been gazetted prohibiting the importation of American hog products, including skins, bacon and sausages.

Of the good results of high license in Le Claire, Ia., a dispatch to the Chicago Tribune says: "During the last twelve months the high-license system has worked admirably. During the two preceding years there was no prohibition, but the law was in force, and the traffic under little or no control. The best citizens say that prohibition not only did not prohibit, but that it was an utter failure; so much, so that at the last two elections the municipal officers were elected without opposition—all pledged to high license."

The news from China is that the French transport, with the first installment of the Tonquin expedition, has arrived. It is currently reported in Shanghai that the British authorities propose to resort to forcible measures if private business is obstructed by the Chinese. The British Telegraph Company desires to land a new cable at Shanghai, but has acknowledged doubt of its right to do so, and has asked permission from the Chinese officials, who have withheld their answer here.

The British foreign office is said to have telegraphed instructions to land forcibly if necessary, under the name of the British foreign office.
